Cube of Force — Rare · Magic Item · 0 lb. · Attuned

This cube is about an inch across. Each face has a distinct marking on it that can be pressed. The cube starts with 36 charges, and it regains 1d20 expended charges daily at dawn. You can use an action to press one of the cube's faces, expending a number of charges based on the chosen face, as shown in the Cube of Force Faces table. Each face has a different effect. If the cube has insufficient charges remaining, nothing happens. Otherwise, a barrier of invisible force springs into existence, forming a cube 15 feet on a side. The barrier is centered on you, moves with you, and lasts for 1 minute, until you use an action to press the cube's sixth face, or the cube runs out of charges. You can change the barrier's effect by pressing a different face of the cube and expending the requisite number of charges, resetting the duration. If your movement causes the barrier to come into contact with a solid object that can't pass through the cube, you can't move any closer to that object as long as the barrier remains. The cube loses charges when the barrier is targeted by certain spells or comes into contact with certain spell or magic item effects, as shown in the table below.

Oathbow — Very Rare · Magic Item · Attuned

When you nock an arrow on this bow, it whispers in Elvish, "Swift defeat to my enemies." When you use this weapon to make a ranged attack, you can, as a command phrase, say, "Swift death to you who have wronged me." The target of your attack becomes your sworn enemy until it dies or until dawn seven days later. You can have only one such sworn enemy at a time. When your sworn enemy dies, you can choose a new one after the next dawn. When you make a ranged attack roll with this weapon against your sworn enemy, you have advantage on the roll. In addition, your target gains no benefit from cover, other than total cover, and you suffer no disadvantage due to long range. If the attack hits, your sworn enemy

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

- The Weaver's Guild (Secretive): A network of spies and rogues who utilize webs of misinformation.
- "Mother" Kaelen: A reclusive herbalist/chemist who provides toxins and antidotes in exchange for rare venom samples.
- The Iron Guards (Rivals): They view the character as a pest to be exterminated due to their habit of infiltrating secure facilities.

ADDITIONAL FEATURES

- Quirk: Habitually taps fingers against surfaces to feel vibrations in the air.
- Quirk: Often climbs walls or sits on high rafters rather than sitting in chairs.
- Appearance: Eyes have a faint, unnatural reflective glow in low light; hair is often messy and moves as if disturbed by a slight, unseen breeze.
- Hook: Carries a sealed, silk-wrapped container they refuse to open in front of others.

BACKSTORY

Born into a subterranean community where silence was the only law, they learned early that the loudest voices were the first to die. They survived by becoming part of the shadows, mimicking the movements of the great wolf spiders that inhabited the cavern walls. A turning point came when they uncovered a conspiracy involving the abandonment of their clan by surface-dwelling merchants. Exiled for what they discovered, they now travel the world, weaving their own complex web of influence, seeking the patrons who betrayed their kin—and ensuring those patrons walk directly into a trap of their own making.

Cure Wounds Player's Handbook A creature you touch regains a number of hit points equal to 1d8 + your spellcasting ability modifier. This spell has no effect on undead or constructs. At Higher Levels. When you cast this spell using a spell slot of 2nd level or higher, the healing increases by 1d8 for each slot level above 1st.	Alarm Player's Handbook You set an alarm against unwanted intrusion. Choose a door, a window, or an area within range that is no larger than a 20-foot cube. Until the spell ends, an alarm alerts you whenever a tiny or larger creature touches or enters the warded area. When you cast the spell, you can designate creatures that won't set off the alarm. You also choose whether the alarm is mental or audible. A mental alarm alerts you with a ping in your mind if you are within 1 mile of the warded area. This ping awakens you if you are sleeping. An audible alarm produces the sound of a hand bell for 10 seconds within 60 feet.	Goodberry Player's Handbook Up to ten berries appear in your hand and are infused with magic for the duration. A creature can use its action to eat one berry. Eating a berry restores 1 hit point, and the berry provides enough nourishment to sustain a creature for one day. The berries lose their potency if they have not been consumed within 24 hours of the casting of this spell.
