Cube of Force — Rare · Magic Item · 0 lb. · Attuned

This cube is about an inch across. Each face has a distinct marking on it that can be pressed. The cube starts with 36 charges, and it regains 1d20 expended charges daily at dawn. You can use an action to press one of the cube's faces, expending a number of charges based on the chosen face, as shown in the Cube of Force Faces table. Each face has a different effect. If the cube has insufficient charges remaining, nothing happens. Otherwise, a barrier of invisible force springs into existence, forming a cube 15 feet on a side. The barrier is centered on you, moves with you, and lasts for 1 minute, until you use an action to press the cube's sixth face, or the cube runs out of charges. You can change the barrier's effect by pressing a different face of the cube and expending the requisite number of charges, resetting the duration. If your movement causes the barrier to come into contact with a solid object that can't pass through the cube, you can't move any closer to that object as long as the barrier remains. The cube loses charges when the barrier is targeted by certain spells or comes into contact with certain spell or magic item effects, as shown in the table below.

Oathbow — Very Rare · Magic Item · Attuned

When you nock an arrow on this bow, it whispers in Elvish, "Swift defeat to my enemies." When you use this weapon to make a ranged attack, you can, as a command phrase, say, "Swift death to you who have wronged me." The target of your attack becomes your sworn enemy until it dies or until dawn seven days later. You can have only one such sworn enemy at a time. When your sworn enemy dies, you can choose a new one after the next dawn. When you make a ranged attack roll with this weapon against your sworn enemy, you have advantage on the roll. In addition, your target gains no benefit from cover, other than total cover, and you suffer no disadvantage due to long range. If the attack hits, your sworn enemy

ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

- The Weaver's Guild (Secretive): A network of spies and rogues who utilize webs of misinformation.
- "Mother" Kaelen: A reclusive herbalist/chemist who provides toxins and antidotes in exchange for rare venom samples.
- The Iron Guards (Rivals): They view the character as a pest to be exterminated due to their habit of infiltrating secure facilities.

BACKSTORY

Born into a subterranean community where silence was the only law, they learned early that the loudest voices were the first to die. They survived by becoming part of the shadows, mimicking the movements of the great wolf spiders that inhabited the cavern walls. A turning point came when they uncovered a conspiracy involving the abandonment of their clan by surface-dwelling merchants. Exiled for what they discovered, they now travel the world, weaving their own complex web of influence, seeking the patrons who betrayed their kin—and ensuring those patrons walk directly into a trap of their own making.

PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS

PERSONALITY TRAITS:

- Calculated and patient; willing to wait for the perfect moment to strike rather than rushing in.
- Speaks in soft, rapid bursts, often shifting eyes to track multiple movements at once.
- Unsettlingly still when thinking; can remain motionless for hours.
- Deeply protective of personal space and territory, becoming aggressive if cornered.
- Pragmatic approach to problem-solving: views challenges as prey to be trapped or obstacles to be navigated around.

IDEALS:

- Adaptability: Survival dictates that one must change their approach based on the environment.
- Autonomy: A creature should be the master of its own web; external control is an affront to nature.
- Efficiency: Do not expend energy where a simple, precise action will suffice.
- Interconnectedness: All things are tied together; tugging one thread inevitably affects the whole.

BONDS:

- Bound to a hidden cache of stolen documents, believing them to be the key to their past.
- Owes a life-debt to an outcast druid who healed them from a near-fatal injury.
- Maintains a secret pact with a swarm of arachnids that act as eyes and ears throughout the city.
- Fiercely loyal to a small group of fellow outcasts, regarding them as their "brood."

FLAWS:

- Territorial Anxiety: Becomes agitated and irrational when forced to stay in unfamiliar or "unsecured" locations.
- Sensory Overload: In bright, loud, or crowded areas, they become panicked and disoriented.
- Predator's Arrogance: Frequently underestimates the intelligence and capabilities of "prey" (those they deem weaker).
- Gluttony for Information: Obsessively gathers secrets even when it puts them in direct danger.

ADDITIONAL FEATURES

- Quirk: Habitually taps fingers against surfaces to feel vibrations in the air.
- Quirk: Often climbs walls or sits on high rafters rather than sitting in chairs.
- Appearance: Eyes have a faint, unnatural reflective glow in low light; hair is often messy and moves as if disturbed by a slight, unseen breeze.
- Hook: Carries a sealed, silk-wrapped container they refuse to open in front of others.

Choose a door, a window, or an area within range that is no larger than a 20-foot cube. Until the spell ends, an alarm alerts you whenever a tiny or larger creature touches or enters the warded area. When you cast the spell, you can designate creatures that won't set off the alarm. You also choose whether the alarm is mental or audible.
